

Trisha Sinosich-Arciaga
ARAD/ RAD/ RTS

Trisha Sinosich-Arciaga received her initial ballet training with Dolores Kirkwood and furthered her training at the Alberta Ballet School. Early on as a young adult, she embarked on the challenging task of teaching children. With over 30 years teaching experience, Trisha continues a lifetime of teaching, from Pre-School to Pre-Professional, RAD Pre-Primary to Solo Seal. And now, can add the ISTD Ballet curriculum to her vast knowledge.

Previously, she has been Executive Producer with the touring youth company, Royal City Youth Ballet, setting full length classical ballets such as The Nutcracker, Coppelia and Cinderella with over 100 performers per show, performing in multiple theatres in the lower mainland.

Trisha most recently received a Choreography award for her son's Contemporary solo from YAGP Seattle in January, 2020. Her professional career as a dance teacher has led Trisha to become a very respected and sought after mentor, coach and adjudicator as well as head of the Junior Division for the Dance Conservatory.